

The Albany Agricultural Society Inc is looking for food vendors to attend our Albany Agricultural Show.

What you need to know as a food vendor attending this event:

The Albany Agricultural Society Inc is partnering with Healthway to promote the LiveLighter health message. Healthway aims to support community events in creating healthier food and drink environments and ensure healthy options are available and promoted.

As this event is partnering with Healthway to promote LiveLighter the Albany Agricultural Society Inc has agreed that all food vendors attending are required to:

- remove all sugary drinks from display (sugary drinks can still be sold)
- offer some healthy options.

The Fuel to Go & Play® website has a page dedicated to supporting food vendors meet these requirements

Use the fact sheets below to assist you in meeting the requirements.

- Healthy options
- Sugary Drinks on display

By ticking the below, you agree at the Albany Agricultural Show to:

- offer healthy options (if you don't think you have healthy options available contact the Fuel to Go & Play® team for support)
- will not display sugary drinks
- promote water in prominent position
- include water as the standard drink option with any meal deals offered.

As part of the application process, you agree to provide The Albany Agricultural Society Inc a copy of your menu.
